

2021 Zoom Activities and Games

Activities:

1. Most likely to....
 - Have participants private message the game host your answer to “What do you enjoy doing?”
Example: skiing
 - The game host will read the activity allowed and participants have to guess whose answer was stated. The correct answer will be the person most likely to participate in that activity.
 - Example: The correct answer is Sasha enjoys skiing.
2. Scavenger Hunt
 - List several items with a description for participants to gather in a specified time.
Example: 5 items- something red, cup, something in your pocket, something you have had for a long time, a movie you did not enjoy. Participants have 2-5 minutes to gather items.
 - Participants come back and describe the items and why they grabbed those items.
 - This activity provides participants to get to know one another along with a physical stretch break.
3. 2 Truths and a lie
 - Participants take turns telling two truths and a lie. The information can be given in any order. The rest of the group has to figure out what the lie is.
Example: I shoot guns, I have a dog, and love 4-H. Lie: I have a dog.

Games:

1. Lightening Scavenger Hunt (Bring Me)
 - List an item for participants to gather as quick as they can. The first participant to hold up the item wins.
2. 5 Things
 - A participant will provide a topic and participants must type in the chat the first 5 things related to the topic into the chat box. 1st person wins.
 - The winner then chooses the next topic and the game continues. (Large groups? -Don't allow the previous topic participant to participate in the new round.
3. Escape Rooms
 - A large list of escape room activities are available from <https://www.vandergriftpubliclibrary.org/online-resources/virtual-escape-rooms/>
 - If you have a large group, use break out rooms to play the game or participate in the activities.
