

Canter's Cave Beginner Camp 2019

“Oh the Places you will go ...
At 4-H CAMP!”

You're off to Great Places! Today is your day!

Your mountain is waiting, So...get on your way! - Dr. Seuss

Where is your mountain? Elizabeth L. Evans Outdoor Education Center, Canter's Cave 4-H Camp, Inc., 1362 Caves Road, Jackson Ohio.

When does the fun begin and end? June 10th – 13th

Which “Whos” are invited to beginner camp? 3rd, 4th & 5th grade children from Gallia, Jackson, Scioto, Highland and Pike Counties. Please note children not in 4-H can still attend, so feel free to invite a friend!

How much does it cost? $127.00 for 4-H Members and $147.00 for Non 4-H Members

When is registration due? May 30th or until spaces are filled! Hurry with five counties space is limited!

Our adventure begins June 10, 2019 in the Main Lodge at 2:00 P.M. (No early check-in, please. Campers wishing to room with friends should plan to arrive at camp together.) Our journey concludes: June 13 at 9:30 A.M. Parents may pick up campers by signing them out at the Main Lodge at 9:30 A.M. All campers need to be picked up no later than 10:00 A.M. (Please note for the safety of our campers, they must be released to a parent/guardian or another adult with permission to pick them up.) Once at camp, campers are expected to remain at camp, unless signed out by a parent or designated person with written permission. Restricted release forms are available for request, if you choose to use them. Please note, with a restricted release form, only the person listed on the form can pick up that child.

Health Concerns: For the health and safety of our campers, temperatures of all campers, counselors and staff will be checked upon arrival at camp. The camp nurse will recheck anyone found to have a temperature above normal. No one with a fever will be allowed to stay at camp. Campers found to have head lice will be sent home for treatment. Any personal items suspected of bed bugs will be removed from camp property. Please help us keep our camp safe and the camping experience enjoyable for all campers! Should a camper become ill or injured, we will make every attempt to contact their guardian immediately by phone. Please be sure phone numbers provided on health forms are current and include cell phone numbers and back-up emergency contacts for other family members. Due to allergies of those attending camp, please do not send peanut products or bath and body products to camp.

Sometimes you will never know the value of a moment until it becomes a memory...Dr. Seuss

Camp Photos! Registration photos will be taken to identify your child in the event of an emergency.

Photo Release: We take many pictures at camp, including the group photo that each child receives at the end of camp. Photos will be shared during the camp slide show, used for publicity purposes and posted on our Facebook page. Individuals are never identified by name in these photos and photos are pre-approved by camp directors before posting. By signing the photo release your child can be included in these pictures, without it we will not be able to include your child in the slide show, camp photo or Facebook pictures. If you would like to see picture during camp follow us on Facebook at “Canter's Cave 4-H Camp”, <https://www.facebook.com/CanterCave>. We will post pictures of camp activities, as we are able.

Registrations and payment is due: to the OSU Extension Office, 119 Governor Foraker

Camp Bank: Beginner Campers are required to keep their money in the camp bank. Please put SMALL BILLS ($1-$5) into your camper's bank envelope, as change is limited at camp. Camp T-shirt ($10.00) along with other clothing items will be for sale during registration and again at pick-up if parents would like to purchase them. Please put your child's name on their camp shirt if you leave it at camp. Snacks and drinks are also available during the week from the canteen ($10 should be more than enough to cover these for the week.) Camp is not responsible for lost or stolen money that is NOT placed or returned to the bank.

What to Bring: Bedding- pillow, sleeping bag or blanket & twin sheets. Personal items: dirty laundry bag, soap, toothpaste/brush, shampoo, bath towels, shower shoes, deodorant, etc. Clothing: outdoor clothes, water boots/shoes or old tennis shoes, bathing suit, jacket, long pants. Additional items: beach towel, suntan lotion, small flash light, small fan, insect repellent, disposable camera, decorations for your cabin - decorations can be anything fun to liven up the cabin. We do have a best-decorated cabin award the first night of camp! Our camp theme is "Oh the places you will go at camp" based on Dr. Seuss, with many activities relating to his books!

Camp's Swimming Suit Policy: "One-piece swimming suits are preferred for girls, due to the pond wall side and the pool team challenge activities however, two piece suits are acceptable as long as modesty can be maintained during activities. Please no string bikinis or suits that fasten with only a sting ties. If the Camp Director deems a suit to be unacceptable for activities, a T-shirt will be required for swimming or use in the pond wall slide." Swim shirts are recommended for both male and female campers during the pond wall side activity to prevent scrapes.

Are you still deliberating about signing up for camp? Just listen to the wise advice of Dr. Seuss himself!

“If you never did you should. These things are fun and fun is good..”

“You will never know the things you can find, if you don't stay behind!”

Camp Registration is due to OSU Extension – Highland County Office no later than May 30, 2019.

Then at the end of camp, we will say, “Don't cry because it's over. Smile because it happened”
