HIGHLAND COUNTY PORK INDUSTRY QUEEN CONTEST

The contest will be held at the annual Highland County Pork Producers Banquet, March 21st at the Back Room Paradise in Hillsboro.

Rules of the contest
1. Contestant must be single, age 16 to 19 as of January 1 of the year in which she is competing.

2. Contestant must reside on a farm on which hogs are raised, and be the daughter of parents now actively engaged in production of pork, or be carrying a Junior Fair swine project, or work on a swine farm.

3. Contestant shall present herself in “dress-up” clothes at the banquet. (A ticket will be provided.) Contestant will need to be by 5pm in order to complete her personal interview with the judges. The committee will give you the exact time depending on how many ladies are running.

4. Contestant will be interviewed by a panel of judges to determine her knowledge of the pork industry.

5. Contestant must present a short speech, not to exceed five minutes, on any subject pertaining to the pork industry. After the speech, the contestant will answer one or more questions asked by the judges.

6. The Highland County Pork Industry Queen contestants will be judged according to the following:
   a. Personality; Demeanor 20 points
   b. Content of speech on pork industry 20 points
   c. Answers to judges questions 20 points
   d. Paragraph on role of the pork queen 10 points
   e. Presentation and poise 30 points

7. The Pork Industry Queen Contest is sponsored by the United Producers Inc. of Hillsboro. They will present a gift of $100 to the Queen that is selected. The Queen will have the honor of assisting with pork promotions throughout the county.

8. The Contestant must complete the enclosed application and return it to:
   Highland County Pork Council
   Attn: Heather Storer
   PO Box 431
   Hillsboro, OH 45133

9. The deadline for entry is March 13th, 2020. If you have any questions they can be directed to Heather Storer at (937) 402-7905 or hcox3151@yahoo.com
Write a paragraph on the role of the Highland County Pork Industry Queen. (What do you think a county queen should do?)